Level 1 – Assignment 2 - Explained

- Learn to trust the integrity of the system. Learn to have confidence in a higher being, yourself, others, the system. Learn to do what we are told to do, when we are told to do it, and do it with a great attitude.
- Fear is what holds us back. We all have fears. Learning to overcome these fears up-front will give us freedom to fail and then succeed . . . and do the very quickly.
- Learn to respect the fear, see it for what it is, and then overcome it. Learning to ask questions that we are uncomfortable with will teach us confidence. Things we will learn:
 - Others will be drawn to you.
 - Others will be curious by your questions.
 - You will open people up in the most exciting way.
 - You will gain confidence, over time, that you can change someone's life in an instant.
 - You will learn, grow, and succeed at a much faster rate.
 - You will learn how to make more money, faster, do it in less time, with less effort, will reduce your stress, and will have greater balance in every area of your life.
